

A recreational atmosphere where faith can grow.

GUIDELINES FOR CAMP CONDUCT

1. All campers will follow camp schedules as established by the Camp Director. Attendance in all activities is required unless excused by a staff member.
2. Everyone must stay on H.O.T Bible Camp property and no one will be permitted to leave without the approval of the camp director.
3. All illness or injury must be reported promptly to the camp nurse, counselor, staff, or camp director. All medicines MUST be turned over to the camp nurse when you register.
4. Everyone is expected to behave in an appropriate manner at all times.
5. DO NOT THROW ROCKS.
6. Inappropriate language, jokes, gestures, or behavior will not be tolerated.
7. Campers or others MUST NOT deface or destroy property of the camp.
8. Do not climb on trees or pull off tree limbs.
9. Over affection or intimate contact between campers will not be permitted.
10. Roughhousing and horseplay are out of place at camp and will not be permitted.
11. No campers will serve the meals or be permitted in the kitchen.
12. Boys and girls cabins and bathhouses are completely off limits to the opposite sex. (Campers will be assigned cabins based on birth gender)
12. Stay out of sleeping areas not your own unless given permission.
14. Do not go into the cabins during the day unless your counselor gives you permission.
15. The craft area and items are off limits when “Arts and Crafts” are not taking place.
16. If it is not yours don’t touch it.
17. Any items “found” will be turned in to your counselor.

Violation of these rules can result in disciplinary action. The camp director will send anyone home who refuses to comply with these basic rules. No phone is available at camp. The director or nurse will handle all emergency calls. In case of an emergency call: 325-597-1365 or 325-456-4513

The Heart of Texas Bible Camp

Is a unique blend of old and new. The camp is located just north of Brady, Texas, and sits on 35 acres of land bordered on the south by Brady Creek.

The facilities consist of a large dining hall/kitchen, dorms which will sleep up to 100, bath houses, and acres of open grassland for recreation.

Activities include dodge ball, basketball, washers, volleyball, horseshoes, shooting, archery, tether ball, frisbee, softball, Bible study, chapel, skits and talent show.

The board of directors for The Heart of Texas Bible Camp is made up of members of the Church of Christ. Two one-week sessions of Bible Camp are held each summer.

Each session is staffed by Christians who volunteer their time and services. Applications are available for both sessions through the church office or on our web site: www.sunsetridgechurchofchrist.com
